

.....

The Salisbury University BHIPP M.S.W. intern will be co-located in a pediatric primary care office three days per week, or two days extended placement, for their Specialized Practice in Clinical Social Work and Advocacy Year of the M.S.W. Program. The field supervisor will be designat and included in patient's primary care record in accordance with the pediatric primary care office's policies and procedures.

8. Participate in weekly clinical supervision with the BHIPP Salisbury field supervisor/group supervision as scheduled by BHIPP intern supervisor, training and consultation calls monthly.
9. Participate in staff meetings, consultations and inter-disciplinary case conferences as requested by the primary care providers.
10. Maintain the highest level of patient confidentiality in all situations.
11. Maintain the level of professionalism expected from a clinician practicing at a medical co-located agency.

1. Specialized Practice in Clinical Social Work and Advocacy M.S.W. Student
2. Experience working with children and families
3. Knowledge of community resources